

Notes on installation of TRC1033 – Honda Civic Adjustable Camber Arm Kit:

- This arm has been set to stock length, installation as-is should result in approximately the same alignment settings as with the stock arm.
- It is recommended a wheel alignment is performed after installation.
- This arm can adjust rear camber by using the turnbuckle to extend and shorten the arm.
- All lock-nuts must be tightened at ride-height